Mr. E.P. Newman
Dear Eric:

Doing a few things today before I confuse my secretary on Monday.

Dad worked on this collection for a year, or so--he is sending all his original correspandence--just for curoisty--when we finally spent the day with the lawyers after the big Segal Auction (STAMPS) Sales, at Friendship airport--I proposed the enclosed, but they didn't think we could sell it?? or so--my guess is that for the investment of $75,000 plus of Baughman (35+ on the tokens--we never had invenotry on paper money--and he bgt for under 20M I believe--and all the good tokens were taken Tues AM beleive me--intelligently handled he could have done a bit bett er--hope JJF forgives you someday for buying the paper.

Am sending my father complete file separately.

Best as usual.

Our auct. sales are growing exponentially — This grossed $10/lot, but next should be even bigger unless I sell goodies first!!

Dear Mr Terrell:

In further confirmation of our conversation of Wednesday, March 24, 1971, I should like to confirm in writing our proposal on the disposition of the Token Collection of the late Mr [illegible].

We propose placing the tokens in an unrestricted mail and mail bid auction sale, to be held in the early Fall of 1971 (late September or early October). The collection will be fully catalogued in 600 to 800 lots, amply described, with the better pieces illustrated. In addition other consignments will be solicited, and we guarantee at least an additional $10,000 worth of material. The auction will be conducted by a licensed public auctioneer, Barr Harris of Harris Auction Galleries of Baltimore. Ample publicity will be given the collection, and over 2500 copies will be distributed. Our net fee will be 20% of the prices proceeds, with no additional charges. We estimate that the sale of the tokens will amount to the neighborhood of $20,000.

If the above proposal is acceptable, please ship the material to us as soon as possible for cataloging.

We have enclosed a balance sheet of our assets and can supply commercial and personal references if desired.

I enjoyed the meeting we had with you last week, and if there are any additional questions in regard to the disposition of the material, feel free to contact us.

Our business phone is Area 301-486-0100.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Yoxall:

Since it has been about a month since our meeting in Baltimore, I wonder if you and the other interested parties have reached a decision about the disposition of the tokens. If you are going to take the Auction route, and the sale is to scheduled in the early Fall, time is becoming a factor.

I received the price lists from your sales at Seigel's--and from a cursory glance you should have done quite well for the estate.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Harlan:

When I checked the Indian Territory etc. notes, on arriving home, I found that the Cherokee set was supposed to have five notes, not four. You said this Cherokee set was intact. I particularly asked you what notes were removed and you mentioned a couple of other things only. Were five Cherokees in the set originally?

You received as much from this sale to us as you asked for the entire group before you sold about five to Al Hoch, etc. Please let me know in detail what you sold to others as you obviously have a record.

You also are going to send Bailey's name and address, which I will appreciate.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Harlan:

I read the photostat of the law relating to the Cherokee Nation notes. On the bottom it states that the original documents are to go along with the notes themselves. It has these words in pencil:

> "$6000 (changed from $4000). These documents priced as a lot - To accompany set of Cherokee Nation Notes."

Who has these original documents? I think they are supposed to be with the notes and I would appreciate getting them.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

An Act Authorizing the issuing of Bills for the purposes of change and prohibiting the issuing and circulating of shin plasters.

1 Be it Enacted by the National Council That the Treasurer of the Nation be and he is hereby authorized to retain in the Treasury, of the Confederate notes on hand the sum of Twenty thousand Dollars and in lieu thereof to issue notes of the denominations of fifty cents, one dollar, two dollars and five dollars or such proportion as he may deem best and which notes shall be redeemed by him on presentation at his office out of the Confederate Notes so retained in the Treasury whenever such notes shall be presented to the amount of Twenty dollars, fifty dollars, One hundred dollars, or above that sum in like denominations.

2d Be it further Enacted that inorder to carry out the objects of this Act the Treasurer is authorized to have struck off on suitable paper the foregoing notes, which previous to being put into circulation shall be signed by the Treasurer, and he shall be required to keep in his office a correct account of all notes so issued by him.

3d Be it further Enacted That it shall not be lawful after the passage of this act for individuals to issue individual notes or shin plasters designed for general circulation as change or a substitute for money, under the penalty of being fined for each and every such offence in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred Dollars, and the District Courts shall have jurisdiction over all such offences, and it shall be the duty of the Solicitors to prosecute all offences arising under this Act.

Be it further Enacted that from and after the 1st day of July, the circulation and passing of all individual notes and shin plasters of the kind referred to above, is prohibited and forbidden within the limits of the Nation, under like penalties and liabilities as in the preceding Section.

Be it further Enacted that the Treasurer be and he is hereby authorized to Employ a suitable clerk to assist him, under his direction in the duties of his office and who shall be allowed for his Compensation the sum of three Hundred Dollars per annum.

Hello Eric

Reading your letter about the oreginal documents on the Cherokee Paper money. as I said when I sold you the lot that the photostat was all there was with the lot when I bought it. I wish I had it for you, but who is ever note that was it was some place down the line before I ever had the lot.

I will try to back track the lot and see if it is any where to be had, but again I read the note that you are speaking of and once two the fact that the orig was not with the lot.

On Bill Baily's address I think this is it although it is from some one else that gave it to me.

Thank you again

Dear Mr. Baily:

We purchased the collection of Indian Territory and Oklahoma paper money offered by Harlan White at the A. N. A. bourse, in New Orleans.

I was advised that you were interested in obtaining some items for a bank in Tulsa. There will be a few duplicates available and if the bank is interested in a small group of the items we will be glad to offer them to the bank. We prefer such interesting items to be available for public viewing.

May we hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Newman:

I am interested in anything pertaining to the early numismatic history of Oklahoma. I have been negotiating with a Tulsa bank for some months in relation to their purchasing from me, at my cost, some two hundred National Bank Notes of Oklahoma, Oklahoma territory and Indian Territory, with the distinct understanding that this material would be placed on display and further that it would not be allowed to be sold to any other bank or institution that would remove it from the public inspection and view in Oklahoma.

At present this bank is in the process of constructing a forty one story banking facility here in Tulsa, which has the steel framework "topped out" and which is on schedule with its construction, and they advise me that soon they will be ready to talk further about the plans for the acquisition and showing of my currency collection.

I will be very pleased to have you offer me anything that you have in this recent acquisition of yours, or any other Oklahoma material that you have for sale. I will assure you that I am not attempting to acquire anything on which I anticipate any profit but solely for the purpose of putting it somewhere where it can be viewed and studied by students of Oklahoma and American history.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. White:

In Coin World I read your name as still the owner of Old Coin Shop which sustained an unfortunate robbery incident. In the 3/23/09 issue there was a write up on page 93 of a Boggy Depot note which we recently acquired for our collection and found to have Western Arkansas as the issuing location which was a geographical error.

This reminded me of our purchase from you on August 17, 1972 (only 37 years ago) of Native American, etc. notes which we have exhibited, studied and on which we have furnished data to others. We were told you overcharged us. If you did, we thank you. If you didn't, we thank you again for selecting us as a customer.

I enclose a copy of your original invoice in case you do not keep records as long as I do.

Both of us have survived in numismatics for quite a while. I have continued to do numismatic research and writing with steady enjoyment.

My son who lives in St. Louis also has a residence in San Diego and often stays there.

My best to you after a long gap.
